

Wamego Kaw Valley Quilt Guild

October 2021 Newsletter

Meetings are held monthly on the 3rd Tuesday at the Presbyterian Church, Wamego, KS
at 6:30 p.m.

kawvalleyquiltguild.wordpress.com

Important Notices

Bring your favorite Halloween item to the meeting to wear or something just to show. Halloween is just around the corner!

Bring a Halloween fat quarter to the meeting and at the end we will have a drawing for a winner for all of them.

While we have the paint chip challenge quilt I think the bats and boos one linked below would also be a fun group activity to follow along with their blocks.

Officer Nominations:

President: Bridget Hoover

Vice President: Jessi Asbury

Treasurer: Janet Wohler, Jackie Hays

Secretary: Paula Curtis

We will have officer elections at the October meeting.
Come prepared to vote! (bring a pen :))

Programs

October: Lori Bond, the owner of Sew Cozy Quilt Lodge in Wakefield will present about Sew Cozy and how she got started with the business.

As a gift for Lori please bring an item to the meeting of one of the following: paper towels, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, napkins, paper plates, hand soap, dish soap. All items will be presented to Lori at the meeting.

UFO Challenge: Don't forget that American Patchwork & Quilting is doing their annual UFO challenge. It's not too late to join! Remember April has a prize planned for this at the end when you turn in your list! You can find their information at 2021 UFO Challenge | AllPeopleQuilt.com

Challenge Quilt: Don't forget to get started on your paint chip quilts! Remember you must use the 3-4 colors on your chip and can add one additional color of your choice!

Tips & Links

Fat Quarter Shop Halloween Mystery Quilt Along (FREE) -

<https://blog.fatquartershop.com/boo-a-cute-and-creepy-mystery-quilt-and-stitch-along-is-coming-soon/>

Jingle All the Way Shop Hop: November 4-6

Tula Pink has a new fabric collection coming called Tiny Beasts! You can check her out on Instagram to see info on the new set.