

Wamego Kaw Valley Quilt Guild

March 2022

Notes from the President

The original and revised bylaws were e-mailed out. Please read over them and let me know if you have any questions. We will be voting on the bylaws at the March meeting. Attached to this e-mail is the member's directory list. Please check if any changes need to be made or added to your information. We still have a year membership with Heartland Quilt Network. You may sign up for their newsletter & use information on their website.

Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order by President Bridget Hoover. Guests: Shirley Wiebers, Dorothy Eaton, Beverly Howard and Sherry Walton.

Several members participated in Sew and Tell.

The January 18, 2022 Guild meeting minutes were approved. Motion made by Kay Russell, seconded by Janet Wohler.

Janet Wohler, Treasurer, reported our bank balance is $1540.69 includes a deposit of $250 and one expenditure of $150 as a donation to the First Presbyterian Church for allowing our Guild to meet at the church.

Old Business:

A copy of the By-Laws with proposed changes was distributed to all members present. Bridget announced that we will vote on the By-Laws with the proposed changes at our March Guild meeting.

Our next Sew Day will be March 12th at the church.

Paula Woodward distributed Secret Sister forms to members that wish to participate in the Secret Sister program this year. Paula will maintain a master list of participants.

New Business:

Tulip Festival information was given. It was determined that we will use the 1930's quilt and the smaller String quilt separately for the Opportunity Raffles this year at the Tulip Festival. The Opportunity Quilt Committee will finish the Black-White and Red quilt for next year's Opportunity Quilt.

February 26th Janet Wohler is having an all-day workshop at Donna's building. See Janet for details.

Our program this month "Where We Get Our Creative Inspiration" was presented by Michelle Crisler.

Door prize drawing was won by Brenda Patterson.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Paula Woodward, Secretary
